RESPONSES: Each time we meet together, there is a possibility that someone would like to respond to the invitation of Jesus Christ. We would be very glad to help you if you would like to be baptized for the forgiveness of your sins and to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, (2) to repent for sin in your life and ask for prayers of the church, or (3) to ask the church to pray for some special need in your life.

A FAMILY WHO PRAYS TOGETHER, STAYS TOGETHER.

Mother's Day

Does being a wife and mother sometime seem to be an overwhelming, thankless task? If you think so, you may be right – but – maybe it would be good to look at women in other times. The following was written by John Fitzherbert in A Book of Husbandry, in 1525.

“When thou art up and ready, then first sweep thy house, dress up thy dish-board, and set all things in good order within thy house; milk thy kine [cows], feed thy calves, sile [strain] up thy milk, take up thy children and array them, and provide for thy husband's breakfast, dinner, supper, and for thy children and servants, and take thy part with them.

And to ordain [organize] corn and malt to the mill, to bake and brew withal when need is. . . Thou must make butter and cheese when thou may; serve thy swine, both morning and evening, and give thy pullen [fowl] meat in the morning, and when time of the year cometh, thou must take heed how thy hen, ducks and geese do lay, and to gather up their eggs; and when they wax broody to set them thereas no beasts, swine or other vermin hurt them.”

Makes you glad you didn't live in 1525, doesn't it? Times have changed drastically haven't they? Or have they? While we do have some modern conveniences we have not found a way to extend the hours in a day past twenty-four. Caring for family often seems to take up all those hours and leave some mothers wishing they had at least two or three extras in the day just for a little bit of rest.

Being a responsible mother can be an overwhelming job but it should never be thankless. That idea did not originate with me, it is found in the scriptures in a book that talks about living a successful life. A king wrote it but the thoughts are attributed to what he learned from his mother. Proverbs 31:10 describes an “excellent wife...who is far more precious than jewels.” It goes through many of the things she does to lift up her family and ends with her being honored and praised by her family.

“Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: ‘Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all.’ Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.”

This is a good day to remember those who have dedicated such a great part of their life to you.

Hi, Mom! Happy Mother's Day

Love ya,
Dale
