RESPONSES: Each time we meet together, there is a possibility that someone would like to respond to the invitation of Jesus Christ. We would be very glad to help you if you would like to be baptized for the forgiveness of your sins and to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, (2) to repent for sin in your life and ask for prayers of the church, or (3) to ask the church to pray for some special need in your life.

The Makeover

You all know the expression. I'm guessing it has been around for generations – at least the first part. I think the second part of it was added later. "Beauty is only skin deep, but ugly goes all the way to the bone." Now, I feel it would be suicidal not to put in a disclaimer. This article is not about women; it is about "attitude." Most of the sayings about beauty are obviously aimed at women but men seek a "masculine beauty" in much the same way. Did you know that men in medieval England who wanted to appear "successful" wore a pad belted to their stomach to make their belly look like mine does naturally? At that time only the wealthy could afford enough food to make them fat. Today they wear gold jewelry and drive Corvettes. The list goes on and on....

OK, back to the subject at hand. I read a magazine article that had "before and after" photos of women who had undergone a makeover and the difference was astonishing. A series of attractive young women were shown with no make-up attached. To their natural face was added an assortment of clay, chalk, powder, and colored grease. After about an hour there was a complete transformation. All flaws were gone. No pimples, scars, or freckles were within ¼ inch of the surface. Cheek bones were "raised" and highlighted, shadows were created and highlights drew attention to eyes and lips. The end result was a porcelain doll flawless beauty that was, well, beautiful, but which had little in common with reality.

It was all just a cover-up. They all had a new coat of paint that eventually will flake off – then what. The funny thing was that under all the make-up was a really pretty person. It is amazing, too, how many want a spiritual make-over. They want to put a covering on the Scriptures that they think will make them more appealing to everyone who sees them. They hide the parts about sin, they cover spirituality with worldliness, and seek to impress the rest of the world with an air of fake success. The end product is something that looks religious and is somewhat attractive to the rest of the world but which has nothing in common with the true beauty of the word of God.

Want to see what a beautiful life looks like? Get rid of the cover-up and live the one given by God. There is nothing more beautiful.

Love ya,
Dale
