RESPONSES: Each time we meet together, there is a possibility that someone would like to respond to the invitation of Jesus Christ. We would be very glad to help you if you would like to be baptized for the forgiveness of your sins and to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, (2) to repent for sin in your life and ask for prayers of the church, or (3) to ask the church to pray for some special need in your life.

A FAMILY WHO PRAYS TOGETHER, STAYS TOGETHER.

A Week Off

Normally in the weekly bulletin I have an article calling for some growth in our level of maturity or a greater commitment to the cause of Christ. This week will be one of relief from those subjects. Instead I will write about some of the great theological themes found in the Bible. The Scriptures are filled with stories and illustrations about Abraham, Moses, Peter and Paul who, through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, made great statements regarding the heart of God and His bond with mankind.

Abraham is the man of great faith, Moses is the law giver, Peter preached the grace of God to both Jews and Gentiles, and Paul was commissioned by Jesus to spread that Good News to the Gentile world. Therein we find four great principles that work together to change the make-up of this world: faith, law, grace, and the great commission (evangelism). When these principles come to fruition in the life of a mature and commit... Oh, I just remembered I can't mention those things.

Let's do something else. Let us consider what it means for the church to be referred to as the "body of Christ." It seems to me a mature person would be commit.... OK, how about another direction. As any mature Christian knows, The Lord's Supper is a time when we can reflect on the sacrifice made by the Son of God who calls for a commit....

I have a problem. It seems one just cannot talk about a relationship with Jesus without bringing up "you know what." So if you want a week off you will just have to quit reading about right here.

Love ya,

Dale
