November Greeters—Diana and Diane

RESPONSES: Each time we meet together, there is a possibility that someone would like to respond to the invitation of Jesus Christ. We would be very glad to help you if you would like to be baptized for the forgiveness of your sins and to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, (2) to repent for sin in your life and ask for prayers of the church, or (3) to ask the church to pray for some special need in your life.

Deal of the Day

Amazon – the web site, not the river. Everyone's up and coming retailer. Sit in the comfort of your own home and order merchandise until your credit card melts down to the metal chip. And for just $100 a year more you get "free" two day delivery. (However, the price somehow miraculously is about the same as other merchants who charge a lower price then add shipping. Somehow it seems you pay for shipping either way; but that has nothing to do with this article.) This is one of the most popular shopping sites on the internet and is getting bigger each day. One must admit, they do know how to move the merchandise. They also know how to get people's attention.

Both the search engines and Amazon keep track of not just your purchases but your searches also. As you "surf" the web, advertisements keep popping up and they always seem to be something you would really like to have, but you are looking for a deal. Amazon has that covered. Everywhere you go this nice little ad pops up that says Amazon has a "deal of the day" that you really need to see. It is not just one deal, but many and there is always something on there that you have been looking for all your life. It's new, it's shiny, and, oh, yes, it is often last year's model – with a discount off this year's price. Methinks it is a deal for someone but not necessarily for me.

There is nothing against Amazon; I am one of the ones who keeps them in business and they are just following the example of multitudes of retailers before them. The point is that we often buy into "deals" that aren't deals at all. We see words like "free," "discount," or "deal," and we go for it without checking to find out it is not really a good deal at all. (Have you ever considered what you are really paying and getting with a BOGO deal?)

Satan learned this ploy generations ago. He told Eve, "Girl, do I have a deal for you; you can be like God." And she took the "Deal of the Day." You would think we would have learned something from that history but it seems we get suckered anew every day and it is not debt we fall deeper into. It is sin.

The only real deal we have been offered is a gift offered by Jesus, paid for with his blood, eternal in duration, and just waiting for our acceptance. What are you searching for?

Love ya,
 Dale
