RESPONSES: Each time we meet together, there is a possibility that someone would like to respond to the invitation of Jesus Christ. We would be very glad to help you if you would like to be baptized for the forgiveness of your sins and to receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, (2) to repent for sin in your life and ask for prayers of the church, or (3) to ask the church to pray for some special need in your life.

A FAMILY WHO PRAYS TOGETHER, STAYS TOGETHER.

In these days of unkept resolutions, I have finally discovered one I can keep. "I resolve to make no more resolutions." But as I think it over, I might have messed that one up also. Maybe we do need to have some resolve in our lives.

There are times when the struggles of this life and the search for spiritual strength seem to overwhelm us. And then there are times when we just get tired. We need a renewal but, strangely, we often fail to look to the one source of strength that will always be there for us.

Renewal – strength to face the world and conquer the multitudes of things it throws at us - has only one lasting source. God is the only one capable of making all things new. There are some who would rely on worldly remedies but they are, at best, short lived. If we will put our trust in Him, He will replace our doubts and fears with the power to run the spiritual race set before us. We will travel the pathway of life with vigor.

I like the visualizations of running and walking as renewal but my favorite is the idea of taking up with wings like eagles. Those great birds soar past the mountain tops. The circling and watching of the earth below seems almost effortless; they just seem to have a great majestic look as they make the clouds their home. What a great image of our relationship with the Lord as we are made new each day in Him.

I pray that this year will be one of allowing God to be our strength as we are renewed and ready to fly to greater heights than we have yet imagined.

Love ya.
Dale
