But It Looked So Real

By most accounts, General Patton was one of the great military leaders of WWII. But for several reasons he got crosswise with his bosses and was not allowed to participate in the Normandy Invasion of D Day. Instead, he was given control of a fake "army." His army consisted of convincing sounding radio traffic, paperwork plans for an invasion in northern France, rubber tanks, and blow-up balloons painted to look like trucks.

The German leadership, however, was convinced that Patton was the greatest general in the American army and there was no way he would not be leading the invasion. Because of that, they believed every false communication they got their hands on and when they flew over Britain those tanks and trucks looked so real they just knew Patton would be leading the invasion. Influenced by what they wanted to believe rather than the truth of the situation, they delayed sending help to Normandy which helped lead to Germany's ultimate defeat and destruction.

Without taking this illustration too far, I just want to note how easy it is to deceive people, especially those who want to believe something so badly, they will believe just about anything. Satan is the great deceiver. He establishes false communications ("God spoke to me and told me....") that would lead people away from the truth – but you must always remember Matthew 7:21 and Galatians 1:6-9. He makes false religions and ungodly worship look so real – until they are examined closely, which most people refuse to do because they are already seeing what they want to see. But remember Jesus words in Matthew 24:23–24, "Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There he is!' do not believe it. 24 For false christs and false prophets will arise and perform great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect."

The only thing blocking a clear view of the will of God and the love of Jesus is our will and the love of self desire. If we can just get those obstructions out of the way the truth will be staring us in the face.

Love ya,
Dale
