REFLECTIONS

"DO NOT DESPAIR"

Sometimes life just gets us down. Many things in life can cause us to despair. It's nothing new. People since the beginning of time have experienced despair. Imagine Adam and Eve hiding from God in the Garden. They were afraid and after their conversation with God, no matter how much they tried to justify themselves, they were driven out of the Garden, cursed to never live a perfect life again. Can you imagine their despair?

There are even times that blessings can turn into discouragement. When Jacob moved his family to Egypt on the invitation of Pharaoh, and given the land of Goshen, the most fertile land in Egypt, it was a great blessing as it allowed Jacob to save his family by escaping the seven years of famine that had fallen on the land. There, the Israelites flourished and enjoyed life. Then, after several years, a new Pharaoh came to power who seemed to have no regard for history and feared the Israelites. This fear led him to enslave the Israelites and mistreat them. Certainly, this caused Israel to despair! They cried out to God.

Long story short, Israel faced a lot of despair, even after escaping Egypt. At the end of his life, Moses encouraged Israel to trust God. It is advice we can put in our hearts today!
