REFLECTIONS

WHOSE PREACHER ARE YOU?

Last week we were blessed to visit with many dear family members and friends. One of the friends was Garrett, age 7. We have known Garrett since he was a baby. Ever since he started talking, Garrett has been known for his forthright way with words.

Garrett goes to school with a friend named Zach. Zach has been to Bible class and worship with Garrett, but he generally finds other things to do on Sunday mornings that are a lot more fun.

One Monday morning Garrett and Zach were riding to school together. Zach had gone hunting with his dad Sunday morning while Garrett and his family gathered with the church. Garrett informed Zach: "We're supposed to want to go to heaven, and we learn about going to heaven in Bible class. I'm supposed to tell you about it. So there—I told you!"

Why was it so important for Garrett to tell Zach? Why is it so important for you and me to tell others? "I'm Zach's preacher," Garrett told his parents one day. "What do you mean?" they asked. "Zach doesn't go to church and have a preacher, so I'm his preacher."

Whose preacher are you? Risen from the dead, Jesus charged disciples: "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned" (Mark 16:15-16).

Be someone's preacher!
