I AM NO FOOL

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and discipline” Proverbs 1:7

If you could have anything in this world, what would it be—money, power, beauty, a long life, good health, or a happy marriage? The list goes on and on of the many things we request in our prayers daily.

Many years ago, God granted a king a wish. The king could have had anything, but he asked for something that many of us may not have considered.—wisdom! King Solomon knew he needed God’s wisdom for the overwhelming task of governing Israel. God was pleased with his unselfish request and granted him his desire.

How fortunate we are today to see Solomon’s insight exemplified in his writings in Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon.

Who is wise in God’s eyes? It is not an individual’s intelligence score. A person who is wise in God’s eyes is one who fears Him and keeps His commandments. In contrast, God considers one who denies His existence and does not follow His commands to be a fool. Let us pray earnestly for wisdom, true wisdom.
