REFLECTIONS

CHANGE IS CONSTANT

*“Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever”
Hebrews 13:8*

Read Joshua 4:1-20

Change is always with us! It challenges us at every turn. It is jarring to leave family and friends of many years and start over in a new place. The Israelites seemed to always be in transition.

But God had a plan. In our reading, God had raised up Joshua to lead His people to the promised land. God had stopped the flow of the river so that they could walk across safely to a good land. Then he told them to set up twelve stones, memorials to the work of God in that place. He said when your children ask you why the stones are standing there, remind them: God delivered us through great difficulty. He was with us! He had a plan to give us hope and a future, and He intervened supernaturally to see us through!

Change can force us to depend on God and cause us to reflect about what God has done in our past and how He has seen us through. He is with us and He is for us, and that doesn't change—trust His faithful heart!
