REFLECTIONS

GOD CAN USE YOU

C.S. Lewis in a letter to Mary Van Deusen, wrote about dealing with adversity. He commented on fears and hopes and what he felt were puzzling ways of dealing with them. He noted that God can use the strangest instruments to accomplish His ends. And he made his point by writing, "We must remember Balaam's donkey" (Numbers 22:22-23)

Sometimes we feel spiritually inadequate, as if we have nothing to give as Christians. But our feelings may tell us one thing (we are ineffective), while God's purposes may have a different use for us.

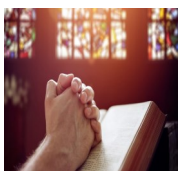

Isn't the Bible full of episodes where the unlikely, even seemingly impossible avenues, are used by God in significant ways? After all, He is all powerful and can follow routes to His goals which may seem as strange as speaking through Balaam's donkey.

So, no matter how we feel today, let us continue being Christian however we can. The day may be quite ordinary, but God may produce one of His surprises and do significant things through us.

We can tell discouragement to go away and place ourselves where God can let our lives accomplish His "hidden" goals.
