REFLECTIONS

FAITH THAT FOLLOWS

“By faith the walls of Jericho fell, after the army had marched around them for seven days” - Hebrews 11:10

To the Israelites entering Canaan, the Lord’s military strategy likely made no sense at all. To their way of thinking, cities were conquered by an all out attack with armies and weapons. God’s command to march around Jericho, blowing trumpets for seven days, went against the grain of conventional thought. God’s people had a choice to make—either trust and follow the Lord’s directives or defy His authority and do what they thought was best.

Faith is following the instructions we have been given, whether they make sense to us or not, because we believe in the One who gave those instructions. God’s people can conquer cities or any other circumstance in life when they choose to trust and submit to God in faith. What about us? Will we obey the Lord’s instructions—such as loving our enemies, turning the other cheek, or going the extra mile— even when it is difficult? We might be surprised at the walls that will come crashing down when we choose to follow the Lord in faith.
