SERMON SCRIPTURE REFERENCES

Preserving Our Old Life Will Cost Us Our New

Gen. 19:12-26 (Lot's family instructed to leave Sodom, instructed not to look back, Lot's wife does and turns to pillar of salt: a preservative)

Luke 17:26-33 (Jesus explaining Lot's wife and the attitude of trying to preserve our old life that will kill us)

Luke 21:5-24 (The flood, Sodom/Gomorrah, & Jerusalem falling in 70 A.D. are all physical signs of the coming spiritual death and that it can be avoided by obeying God's directions)

2 Peter 3:3-13 (The descriptions and signs of what the last days will look like before God ends the world and the spiritual judgment comes, i.e., all the things that are happening today and have been for 2,000 years, showing us that we have been living in the "last days" since the coming of the Church)

1 Peter 4:1-5 (We have already devoted enough time and energy toward accomplishing sin in our old life, we should never go back to it or hold onto any of it)

Romans 6:1-14 (We should never go back to our old sinful ways because Jesus Christ died to set us free from those and we have died ourselves with Him to escape the punishment for those sins)

Num. 11:4-6,18-20,31-33 (The Jews leaving Egypt who began to focus on what they didn't have anymore - Meat - and remembered life when they had it as better than what it was and despised their current life because of it, causing God to punish them)

2 Peter 2:20-22 (How God describes it when we try to go back to our disgusting habits of sin and the promise that to those who have been saved, and choose to leave salvation behind to return to sinning, the punishment will be greater in the end than for someone who never accepted salvation)
