SERMON SCRIPTURE REFERENCES

Reverence and Expectations from the Book of Malachi: Part 6

Verses 8-12

Lev. 27:30-32 & Gen. 47:23-25 & Deut. 14:22-28, 7:12-14 & 1 Cor. 16:1-2 & 2 Cor. 9:6-15 & Matt. 6:31-33, 1-4, 19-21, 10:40-42, 1 Tim. 6:17-19

(The Jews were commanded to give exactly 10% - called a "tithe" - which was half of what they used to give human rulers. God directed that be given to the priests and Levites to sustain them, and in return for the people's obedience in this, and everything, God promised to reward them monetarily. God through Malachi even tells the people to "test Him" in that, which is not "testing the Lord," but the people seeing that God always keeps His promises. This was part of the Jewish covenant, and the unlearned and unscrupulous will misapply these Scriptures to Christians. God does not promise to return physical wealth to Christians, the false "prosperity gospel," but Christians are only promised survival on earth, with increasing eternal rewards in Heaven to follow)

Verses 13-15

Isa. 58:1-14 (The Jews of Malachi's day think that God does not actually reward obedience, and they see the unrighteous "getting ahead in life" and think that God is actually blessing them. In truth, the ones who think they are being righteous are shown they have not been as God has directed, and no one who "tests God" will escape eternal judgment - which the Jews were not aware of, being unaware of what happened after death)

Verses 16-18

Deut. 10:12-13 & Rev. 20:11-15, 3:5 & Exo. 32:31-33 & Matt. 21:28-32, 25:31-46, 7:21-13 & James 1:22

(Those that fear God obey Him, and for doing so they get their names written in the Lamb's book of life to be saved at the end of time. Their names will remain in there as long as they continue to do what God directs and avoid sin. God loves everyone, but will only save those who choose to serve Him, actions matter, not words, and present and future choices far outweigh past ones. Many who "follow God" don't do the actions He directs and won't be saved)
