SERMON SCRIPTURE REFERENCES

Preaching Through Acts – The Temple of the Lord's Church – Part 3

Overview facts: written 63-80 A.D. by Luke, the Gentile physician and traveling companion of Paul. Written as part two to the Gospel of Luke. Also written to the man "Theophilus" as Luke was.

Chapter 2 Verse 22

Matt. 2:23 & John 5:36, 10:37-38 & Isaiah 35:5-6 & Matt. 12:22-23 (The prophets spoke of the Messiah being called a Nazarene, but this was never written into Scripture. Likely, because God did not want Satan and those he influenced to be aware and kill the men of Nazareth, like all the infants of Bethlehem were. Jesus spoke about God vouching for Him by allowing Him to do the signs He did.)

Verse 23

1 Pet. 1:20 & Rev. 13:8 & Zech. 12:10 & Isaiah 53:4-5 & Psa. 22:16-18 (Jesus dying was never God's "Plan B" but was God's eternal plan of salvation, down to the mode of death. God knew all this and planned it before the world was.)

Verses 24-28

Psa. 16:8-11 & Luke 23:39-43 (David wrote Psalm 16 from the perspective of the Messiah roughly 1,000 years before Jesus lived, talking about how He would die, but God was not going to leave His soul in Hades - specifically the positive half of Paradise – and not let His physical body decay before raising Him up.)

Verses 29-31

1 Pet. 1:10-12 (David was not speaking about himself in the Messianic psalms he wrote when he wrote from the first person. David died and his tomb can still be visited today. He was allowed to see the future Christ and spoke from His point of view.)

Verse 32

Acts 1:7-8, 21-22 ("Apostle" is apostolos in Greek, a word meaning "one sent," but "the twelve" were a specific group of witnesses chosen by God to be sent to all the nations as witnesses who would testify about what they had seen and heard with God certifying their message through miracles.)

Verse 33

Acts 2:2-3 (See and hear. The "violent rushing wind" sound they heard, as they did the twelve speaking in every dialect present for all to understand without hindrance. The only thing that could have been "seen" were the tongues of flame, which we are not told how long they lasted before disappearing.)

Verses 34-35

Psa. 110:1 & Matt. 22:41-46 (David wrote Messianic psalm 110, which everyone knew was about the Messiah. Jesus used to stump all the religious teachers, who did not believe the Messiah was going to be Divine, when He asked them why David would call the Messiah, Who would be his descendant, "Lord.")

Verse 36

(David has now shown from only Old Testament Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ. That He was always prophesied to both die, and be resurrected from death, that this is what happened to Jesus, meaning that He is both God and Christ, and they are guilty of killing Him.)
